

Press Release

The Department of English Aggarwal College Ballabgarh organized a guest lecture on 19th January 2016 in the college Auditorium under the direction of Principal Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta. The lecture was organized on Shakespearean tragedy sMacbeth which is a part of the curriculum of BA Final Year students. Dr. Neer Kanwal, Associate Prof. Dept. of English Govt. College Faridabad was the invited speaker. She gave a brief introduction of all literary genres such as poetry, prose , drama and fiction. She told that literature helps us in understanding our life. She gave a comprehensive picture of the play Macbeth through power point presentation. Through it she portrayed the thing that good always triumphs over evil. She said that Macbeth is the first work in English that tells that isolation and meaninglessness result from selfishness & cruelty.

All the faculty of Department of English and the students of BA Final were present.