Press Release

From 9th September 2016 to 23rd September 2016, Department of Computer Science of Wing III of Aggarwal College Ballabgarh organising a Fifteen Days Workshop Under the 'Faculty Development Program' for the teaching faculty of Computer Science Department in the Computer Lab-VIII of Wing III. This workshop is organising on the Topic "App Development on Android". The objective of this workshop is to enhance application development skills according to new technologies of computer teaching faculty members of the college. On this occasion, Honourable Principal, Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta has said that nowadays it is very necessary that the faculty should also aware all the new development Technologies so that innovative applications can be developed of their own. Head Department of Computer Science, Dr. Sachin Garg has organizing this workshop. The invited speaker for the workshop is Mr. Manish Gupta, Technical Trainer from NIIT Ltd. Faridabad. Various tools and technique of Application Development like Java Technology, Android Application Development etc. will have been discussed in this workshop. Computer teaching faculty members of the college are very interestingly taking part in this workshop to enhance their development skills.