

Press Release

A one act play 'The Envoy' penned by famous Sanskrit Playwright Bhasa was staged by the students of BA second year of Aggarwal College, Ballabgarh on 9th March 2017 in the college auditorium .The play was organized under English Language Society of the Department of English under the patronage of Principal Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta. Through the play,the students presented an important event of Mahabharata.- great epic where Lord Krishna visits Kauravas as a messenger of peace and implores them for a settlement in order to avoid war. The theme was very well presented in proper costumes. In his address the Principal exhorted the students to follow the principles of peace and silence for the evolvement of a better society. He cited incidents from Mahabharata to prove his stance.