

Press Release

An Induction Ceremony was organized for the first year students of B.Com (Vocational) and B.Com. (Honours) by the Commerce Department of Wing-III at Aggarwal College, Ballabgarh. The programme began with the lightening of lamp by the respected Principal Sir of the college Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta. He addressed all the students and guided and motivated them for a successful career. Head of the Commerce Department Dr. Parveen Gupta welcomed all the students. Ms. Seema Malik, Assistant Professor in Commerce Department introduced the students with the rules and regulations of the college and various activities of the college. Dr. Rekha Sain briefed the students about National Service Scheme (NSS) activities of the college. All the concerned faculty members of the commerce department were present on this occasion .Vote of thanks was delivered by Dr. Rekha Sain. All the faculty members and students took oath for developing a New India till 2022 under the guidance of Principal Sir.