

News

Women Cell and Youth Red Cross Society, Aggarwal College Ballabgarh organised a Self Defence Awareness Workshop in co-operation with Women Police Station, Sector-16, Faridabad on 2nd November, 2017 in auditorium Wing-I under the guidance of Principal Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta. In present scenario, women are not confined to the four walls of the house. They are working competently and constantly contributing towards the progress of the Society & Nation. Shockingly we find that crime against women are increasing day by day. To face this problem there is a need of self defence programme to make women strong and confident.

S.I. Ms. Seema, A.S.I. Ms. Jagwati and Lady constables Ms. Sarita, Ms. Rekha, Ms. Ritu and Ms. Poonam demonstrated various tricks and methods which are helpful in defending oneself in any unhappy situation. Ms. Seema S.I., Police Station Sector-16, Faridabad also told about helpline no. 1091 and FIR App. Students were enthusiastic and took keen interest. The workshop was organised by Incharges of Women Cell Dr. Geeta Gupta, Dr. Renu Maheshwari and Incharges of YRCC Dr. Jaypal Singh and Mr. Lovkesh.

An Elocution Competition on 'My Vision : Corruption Free India', was also organised by the college on the same day which was supported by National Projects Construction Corporation Pvt. Ltd. under Vigilance Awareness week from 30th October 2017 to 04th November 2017. Students from all the wings of the college participated with full fervour and presented their full support through their views in order to make India-Corruption free. The Chief Guest of the function was Mr. A.K. Shrivastava - NPCC who addressed the students and said that our Constitution, Social, Political & Economic structure of an society has laid a path for us to move on and when we get astray from that, that is corruption. Making our character strong leads to a strong & developed nation.

The Judges of the Competition were Mr. A.K. Shrivastava and Ms. Kiran Anand. Along with these, a Questionnaire on Corruption Free India and General Knowledge was circulated. This was arranged by Mr. N.K. Garg, AGM, PNB and other personnel from Punjab National Bank. The Winners of all these contests were felicitated with prizes. An Integrity pledge against corruption was also taken by one and all present there.

The whole event was coordinated by Ms. Kiran Anand under the directions of Principal Dr. Krishan Kant. Dr. Geeta Gupta, Dr. Sarika Kanjlia, Dr. Rekha Rani & Dr. Renu Maheshwari facilitated this event.