

A two day National Conference on “South Asia-Contemporary Issues (NCSACI-2017)” is being organised in Aggarwal College Ballabgarh by the Department of Political Science on 24-25 February 2017. The Conference was sponsored by Director Higher Education Haryana. On the very first day the conference started seeking the blessings of God Almighty. The Chief Guest of the Conference was Rtd. Lt. Gen. J.P.Nehra (AVSM, PVSM & BAR). The Guest of Honour was Dr. Ranbir Singh Gulia, NSS Coordinator & Head Department of Political Science, M.D. University, Rohtak, the Chairperson was Dr. Krishan Kant, Principal Aggarwal College Ballabgarh, the Keynote speaker was Dr. Karori Singh, Director & Head South Asia Studies University of Rajasthan. The Conference began with a warm floral welcome after that Dr. Krishan Kant welcomed all dignitaries elaborating on Genesis of the college. Ms. Ritu Tehlan, Convener presented the theme of the conference and hoped that this conference would provide a platform for the experts to share their views. Dr. R.S. Gulia Guest of Honour discussed at length the role of India in developing cordial relations with its neighbouring countries in changing contemporary scenario. In his keynote address, Prof Karori Singh talked about distributional crisis and to achieve scene of justice by the proper use of knowledge and judicious distribution of resources. The Chief Guest Lt. Gen. J.P.Nehra touched each and every contemporary issue related to South Asian Countries. He further said that the need of the hour is to bridge the gap between rich and poor. The Inaugural ceremony concluded with vote of thanks presented by Dr. Geeta Gupta. Total 3 Technical Sessions were conducted on the first day in which Prof. Ranbir Singh Gulia, Dr. Radhika and Dr. Yogesh Kumar delivered the Invited Talks. Various research scholars and delegates presented their research papers and shared their views.