

Report

Commerce forum of Aggarwal College, Ballabgarh organised a workshop on the topic of Banking as a Career in Wing-I auditorium on 3 February, 2017 for the commerce students under the guidance of Principal Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta.

Dr. Shobhna Goyal Hod of Commerce department welcomed the speaker of workshop. Main speakers were Mr. Tejpal Singh Cheena & Mr. Amit Kumar. They discussed about various opportunities available in banking sector for students due to Demonetization and Digitalization. Students got a lot of knowledge about banking sector.

In this workshop career overviews, Banking sector, Manpower requirement in Banking sector, Career Growth in Banking were prominently discussed. They told about role of banking sector in economic development of Country. Coaching classes regarding various Competitive Banking exams also has been discussed in the workshop. Students asked various Queries about selection of Banking as Career. Speakers gave satisfactory answers to students. At this occasion all the faculty members of commerce department and students of all three wings were present. Students took part with full of courage and enthusiasm.

Principal Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta addressed the students about the importance of employment in Banking sector in present scenario and gave his best wishes to all students