

A Declamation Competition was organised by English Language Society on 6th October, 2018 for the students of the Aggarwal College Ballabgarh under the able direction of Principal Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta. 20 students of different streams participated and expressed their views on 'Importance of English, Women Empowerment, Role of Social Media in Today's life'. The students presented innovative ideas on the above topics and were quite enthusiastic to come up with their views. Such competitions are organised to provide a healthy platform to students through which their confidence level, speaking skills and knowledge improves. Dr. Geeta, Ms. Vijaya and Ms. Meenakshi adjudged the participants and declared the winners. First position was bagged by Kavita (MA Final), Second position by Vandana of MA Hindi, Third position by Ritika of BA Ist Year. There were 2 Consolation prizes also which were given to Yashpal MA Final and Priya BA I. On the same day, all the participants of Story Writing Competition and Declamation competition were also awarded as an incentive to promote creativity and imagination among students. Story Writing Competition was organised on 4th October, 2018 under the banner of English Language Society.