

Under Skill Development Campaign of Govt. of India, Aggarwal College Ballabgarh organised the Inauguration function of Stitching and Embroidery Centre at the adopted village- Chandawali on 6th July 2018 at Panchayat Vatika, Chandawali under University Outreach Programme of the college. The Chief Guest of the function was Sh. D.R. Sharma, General Secretary, IRCS, Haryana state branch, Chandigarh. Guest of Honour was Sh. Devender Kumar Gupta, President, Aggarwal College Ballabgarh. The function was organised in collaboration with Youth Red Cross Society, Faridabad and Singer India Pvt. Ltd. Principal Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta, Ms. Alpana Sarang, manager, Singer India Pvt. Ltd., Dr. M.P. Singh, Ms. Anju yadav, Sarpanch, Chandawali also graced the occasion.

Principal, Dr. Krishan Kant extended a formal welcome to the dignitaries. He told about a high tech Computer Bus which provides computer literacy to the villagers of Chandawali. He promised to provide best possible aid to the adopted village in all the fields.

Mr. Devender Gupta addressed the gathering and motivated all to be self sufficient and make a mark of your own by making the best possible use of Sewing Centre.

Sh. D.R. Sharma congratulated President Sh. Devender Gupta & Principal Dr. Krishan kant for organising this event. He also appreciated the efforts made by Aggarwal College Ballabgarh by providing Maximum help too victims of natural disasters. He suggested to sign an MOU to spread computer literacy. He extended his best wishes and promised full support to all present there.

Ms. Alpana Sarang, manager, Singer India Pvt. Ltd. stressed on Women Empowerment and said that opening of Sewing School is a step in this direction She said that this is 15th Sewing School in Faridabad.

Also present in the function were Sushma Gupta, School activist & Executive Member YRC Haryana Region, Sh. B.B. Kathuria, Secretary, Life member YRC, Sh. Purushottam Saini, YRC, Sh. Darshan Bhatia, Sh. Gaurav Ramkaran, Sh. Ishaan Kaushik, Training officer, District Level, Sh. Jatin Sharma, PA, Sh. Jagat Singh Tewatia, Activist, Drug Deaddiction.

Students of 'Team Bati' were felicitated by the Guests for spreading awareness about social evils through a street play.

Mementoes were given to the guests as token of regards Vote of thanks was extended by Ms. Anju Yadav.

On the same day, trees were planted at different places in Chandawali.

All the volunteers of YRC, RRC, NSS, Swachchhta Senani along with their Incharges were also present.

New Computers were installed in the Computer Centre in Chandawali run by the College to cromote computer literacy in sync with digital campaign.