

Press Release

Today dated on 14th September 2019 a seminar on “financial literacy” was organised by ‘Commerce Forum’ at Aggarwal College Ballabgarh. This Program was conducted under the noble guidance of the Principal Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta. Mr. Nelson Danthy the certified Wealth Manager was the resource person this program. He talked on financial literacy and its importance in current scenario. He shared his experience and live examples of few companies regarding this. He also talked on Term Insurance and health insurance. He also described Solar Oplexus and gray metter. He explained various financial frauds over the internet. He suggested student be careful while investing and using internet based financial transaction.

The students of department of Commerce attended this program and more than 100 students were present. The program was very interactive and students asked various questions from the resource person. He satisfied their queries and curiosity. All the faculty members attended and enhanced their knowledge. The program ended with the vote of thanks by Dr. Shobhna Goyal.