

Farewell of Bachelor of Vocational (Retail Management)

On 19th April 2019, farewell ceremony of B.Voc (R.M) was organized in Aggarwal College - Ballabgarh. This ceremony began with inauguration by college Principal Dr Krishan Kant Gupta. Inauguration ceremony was followed by lamp lightening which is believed as an Indian trend followed before starting any event. In this farewell ceremony many pictures of B.Voc students were presented which were captured during their visit to Jaipur, GIP Mall, Ambience Mall and also covered the images of guest lecture, mini bazar function. Three titles were given to final year students namely - Miss B.Voc, Miss Sincere and Miss Personality. Final year students had also given title tags to their teachers which was a very wonderful moment for the teachers. Even the students had given honor to Principal Sir by a gift. Principal Sir had given his best wishes and blessings to final year girls for their bright future. Students enjoyed this ceremony as dance and singing performance were also there by students. The whole arrangement for this ceremony was done by Dr Manoj Shukla, Miss Ritu Mudgal and Miss Poonam Rautela. The ceremony was successfully ended by giving vote of thanks.
