

Press Release

A guest lecture was organised on 29th August 2019 by the Department of English, Aggarwal College Ballabgarh. The lecture was delivered by Dr. Jyoti Sharma, Associate Professor, MRIU. The topic of the lecture was “confessional Poetry” with special reference to the works of Anne Sexton, Kamala Das and Sylvia Plath. The students took keen interest during the lecture and also asked several queries based on these women writers. The lecture spoke about the idea of confessional poetry, its features and how various women writers used this concept in their work. The guest lecture came to an end with a vote of thanks by Dr. Geeta Gupta who also arranged this lecture under the able guidance of Principal Dr. Krishan Kant and Ms. Kamal Tandon. Around 150 students of BA and MA classes along with faculty members were present.

Guest lecture

A Guest lecture on "Capital Gains" was organised by the department of commerce in Aggarwal College Ballabgarh dated 29th August 2019. This programme was organised under the able guidance of Principal Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta who takes initiative in organising these type of programmes from time to time. The resource Person "Mr Mohan (CFO, One Tick Technologies Pvt. Ltd.)" talked on various important issues related to capital gains. He talked about capital assets, it's types provisions related to transfer of capital assets. He also discussed capital gains in agricultural sector. He also highlight various exemptions related to capital gains which will help the Assesses to file Tax Return.

He shared his experiences with students and they enjoyed & learnt a lot from her experiences. His lecture was very interactive and a knowledge booster for students. Students raised various queries regarding Capital Gains and he solved all their queries. This programme was successfully co-ordinated by Dr. Rekha Sain and all faculty members of commerce deptt. At the end, vote of thanks was given by Dr. Rekha Sain. This programme was conducted successfully with the co-operation of all teachers of commerce and students.