

A Rally on 'Voters Awareness' on 4th October 2019 was organised by the Volunteers of NSS, YRC, RRC and Swachchhta Senani Team of Aggarwal College Ballabgarh under the able directions of Principal Dr. Krishan Kant. Principal Dr. Krishan Kant addressed the volunteers and exhorted them to spread awareness and cast their votes as it is their right and responsibility as well. He further added that voting is an important exercise and can bring about a significant change for the society. The rally was flagged off by Dr. M.P. Singh, Eminent Social Activist, District Nodal Officer - Voter Awareness & Life Member of Indian Red Cross Society. Dr. M.P. Singh encouraged the students to cast their votes wisely and not to get influenced by gifts and other incentives. The rally was organised to raise awareness among the people regarding their voting rights. Raising slogans,

'Loktantra Mein Hissedari, Hum Sabki Hai Zimmedari',

around 250 volunteers marched to Ambedkar Chowk, Clock Tower and the market area of Ballabgarh to motivate the people to cast their votes. All the Conveners coordinated for the smooth functioning of the event.
