

On the occasion of Librarian's Day on 129th Anniversary of Padmashree Dr S R Ranganathan, Research Advisory committee and learning Resource Centre, Aggarwal college Ballabgarh organised an International Webinar on Library Management and Services : Relevance of the thoughts of Dr S R Ranganathan in Present Scenario on 12th August 2021 . The Principal of the college welcomed the guests and highlighted the changing roles of library and librarians.He congratulated the organising team for organising international webinar on such a relevant issue when the reading habits of the people need to be escalated .The convener Dr Ram Chander presented the theme of the webinar. KeyNote speaker was Professor Daniel Wembiri Muthee from Kenyatta University Kenya highlighted the contribution of Dr R S Ranganathan in the growth of library science. The second resource person was Professor Mohammed Mezbah ul Islam from University of Dhaka Bangladesh. He presented an exhaustive view of his contribution in the field of information literacy and its relevance with the current digital world. The next speaker was Professor M.Masoom Raza who emphasised on the latest digital techniques for improving the functioning of libraries and changing role of librarians to provide a better learning environment.The next speaker was Dr.N.K.Bar, Ministry of culture,Government of India. He presented a comprehensive view on the achievements and teachings of Dr R.S Ranganathan to motivate and inspire the audience.A total of 200 participants participated in this webinar enthusiastically Dr. Geeta Gupta proposed Vote of Thanks. Dr.Sarika Kanjlia and Dr.Inayat Chaudhary were the Coordinators. Mr.Vineet Nagpal provided the logistics support.