

An Online Guest lecture on Gandhi ji and Indian Literature was organised on 3rd December, 2021 by Department of English of college under the able guidance of Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta, Principal at Aggarwal College Ballabgarh. The resource person for the lecture was Mr. Ansar Ali, Curator National Gandhi Museum, Delhi. The lecture was full of knowledge and less known facts. Mr. Ansar Ali spoke about Gandhiji's own contribution to literature in which he shared his approach towards life and highlighted social issues. He also told about various interesting anecdotes revolving around Gandhiji's life and how these shaped his writings. Apart from discussing Gandhiji's work, Mr. Ali cited how a great man like Gandhiji have many biographies and others genres of works involving him.

The lecture ended with questions from the students which were answered enthusiastically by the resource person Mr. Ansar Ali. The guest lecture saw a total of 100 participants. Ms. Kamal Tandon, Head of Department gave Vote of Thanks. Dr. Sarika Kanjlia was the moderator of the lecture. Other members of the organising team included Dr. Geeta, Dr. Inayat. Mr. Subhash, Ms. Vijaya Rani.