Women Empowerment

To mark the birth anniversary of nightingale of India Mrs. Sarojini Naidu, Women Cell of Aggarwal College Ballabgarh organized a talk on 13th February 2021. The talk was deliberated by Dr. Archana Bhatia HOD Dept. of Commerce, DAV Centenary College, Faridabad on the topic “Sarojini Naidu: An Embodiment of Women Empowerment” This talk was organized under the able guidance of Principal Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta who is quite instrumental and guiding force in shaping up the future of the students. In her address, Dr. Bhatia highlighted the various aspects of Naidu^s personality. She said that Sarojini Naidu was a great champion of women rights and fought not only for freedom against British Empire, but against society’ mindset and thinking also. Along with Annie Besant and Kamala Nehru, she worked for the women^s political awakening and emphasized on including more women in Congress and in freedom struggle. Dr. Bhatia remembered her significant role in advocating the social issues like women education, ending of child marriage and remarriage of widows. Sarojini Naidu called out the patriarchy and remained vocal and active in matter of women^s inclusion in public life. Dr. Bhatia talked about gender inequality and gender sensitization and motivated the students to seek inspiration from Naidu and shackle the chains which bind their growth. She asked them to be tolerant but raised their voice against injustice. She concluded her talk with hope that girl education will bring a change in the mindset of society and will provide them wings to fly. She presented her views in engaging and interesting way. Around 250 students participated with exuberance and asked various questions. This talk was organized by the coordinators of Women Cell Dr. Shobhna Goyal, Dr. Geeta Gupta and Dr. Renu Maheshwari.
