

Celebrations of Dayanand Saraswati Jayanti at Aggarwal College Ballabgarh

On 26th February, 2022 Dayananad Saraswati Jayanti was celebrated at Aggarwal College, Ballabgarh under the able guidance of its Principal Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta. Maharshi Dayanand Saraswati was born on the 10th day of Falgun month in Krishna Paksha in the year 1824. In 2022 this day falls on 26th February. Maharshi Dayanand Sarasawati is considered the 'Maker of modern India.' He was the first to give the call of 'swaraj' and laid foundation of Arya Samaj. He was a social reformer in the true sense who denounced idol worship, worked towards reviving vedic ideologies, uplifting women, spoke against superstitions and many more. Ms.Kamal Tandon and other faculty members, students paid homage to him and remembered his good deeds. Dr.Inayat Chaudhary was the organizer of the event. The event was attended by Dr. Poonam Anand, Dr. Jaypal, Dr. Ashok Nirala, Dr. Ram Chander, Dr. Ritu, Dr. Geeta Gupta, Dr. Sarika Kanjlia, Dr. Meenu Aggarwal, Mr. Subhash, Mrs. Deepti Goyal. Aggarwal College Ballabgarh keeps organizing such events from time to time to commemorate the heroes of Indian soil for their contribution to the society. A National level Online PPT Competition,2022 was also organized to commemorate Birth Anniversary of Maharshi Dayanand Saraswati by Department of English and Digital Content Development and Management Cell of Aggarwal College Ballabgarh.