

Dr. Inayat Chaudhary, Assistant Professor in English from Aggarwal College Ballabgarh delivered a talk as a Resource Person at PSG College of Arts and Science, Coimbatore, Tamilnadu. Her talk was on the topic: "Critical Appreciation of Paradise Lost (Book IX)". Her talk was highly informative as she discussed various themes, characters and ideas about Paradise Lost. She also spoke at great length about the writer of the epic John Milton and his contribution to the society. Her session also provided clarity to the 17th Century literature written in England. It was an interactive session as she readily cleared doubts of several audience. As an educator Dr. Inayat Chaudhary keeps making such valuable contribution in the field of education from time to time. She has also delivered various sessions on Edusat Channel and Udaan initiative of Department of Higher Education, Haryana. Her contribution to Government of India initiative of Swayam Moocs is also a good contribution towards imparting education in a digital way.