

Aggarwal College students take out rally on "Sadak Suraksha Jeevan Raksha"

Sanjeev Kumar
info@impressivetimes.com

FARIDABAD: The National Service Scheme (NSS) was started in 1969 with the primary objective of developing the personality and character of student youth through voluntary community service. The motto of NSS is 'Education through Service'. Taking inspiration from the motto, on 17 January, 2023, a rally was organized under the aegis of NSS Unit 2 at Aggarwal College on Road Safety Week. The purpose of taking out this rally is to educate the public through volunteers to follow traffic rules and be safe on the road. With this, Vice Principal of the college, Kamal Tandon flagged off the rally. On this occasion, she also administered the oath of road safety to the youth. During this, she addressed the students in the oath not

Vice Principal of the college, Kamal Tandon flagged off the rally. On this occasion, she also administered the oath of road safety to the youth. During this, she addressed the students in the oath not to waste their precious .

life in road accidents by over speeding, drinking alcohol and also motivated them to contribute in social work. Around 70 volunteers participated in this rally with slogans like "Sadak Suraksha Jeevan Raksha". With this, this rally was taken out in Sector 2 of Ballabgarh. Various activities like poster making, slogan writing, poetry recitation and quiz were also organized in the college to make the students aware about road safety and traffic rules. Apart from this, the principal of the college congratulated NSS in-charge Dr. Shobhana Goyal and Dr. Supriya Dhanda for the efficient conduct of the rally and also praised all the volunteers. On this occasion, D.P. of the college, Mohit Hooda was also present.