

Guest Lecture on "COMMUNICATION SKILLS" organized by Department of English, Aggarwal College Ballabgarh

Under the able guidance of Sh. Devender Kumar Gupta, Chairman Agarwal Vidya Pracharni Sabha, Department of English , Aggarwal College Ballabgarh organized a Guest Lecture on 13th September, 2024. The speaker was Dr. Priyanka Lamba, Associate Professor of English, Guru Dronacharya College, Gurugram. She deliberated on the topic "Communication Skills for better Employability". The session focused on enhancing verbal and non-verbal communication techniques, effective listening, and the importance of clear expression in both professional and personal contexts. Dr. Lamba's expertise provided UG and PG (MA English) students with practical tools and strategies to improve their communication abilities, fostering greater engagement and understanding in various interactions. The coordinator of the event was Dr. Sarika Kanjlia, Assistant Professor, Department of English. The event was organised under the able guidance of Dr. Sanjeev Kumar Gupta, Acting Principal. The event was attended by 80 students of UG and PG. All the faculty of English Department was present.