

Guest Lecture on “Building Dreams: The Art and Science of Entrepreneurship”
Organized by the Department of English

Under the visionary leadership of Principal Dr. Sanjeev Kumar Gupta, the Department of English, Aggarwal College, Ballabgarh, organized a guest lecture on “Building Dreams: The Art and Science of Entrepreneurship” on 25th February 2025. The session was graced by Dr. Ankita Mohindra, Assistant Professor, Department of Business Administration, DAV Centenary College, Faridabad, as the esteemed resource person.

Dr. Mohindra highlighted the significance of entrepreneurial skills in fostering critical thinking, creativity, problem-solving abilities, initiative, and adaptability. She emphasized that entrepreneurship not only cultivates self-reliance but also encourages individuals to take proactive steps in shaping their careers. Additionally, she provided valuable insights into various organizations in India that offer support and funding to budding entrepreneurs.

The Department of English is committed to organizing such insightful events to broaden students' perspectives and enhance their understanding beyond academics. The session was successfully coordinated by Dr. Geeta Gupta (HOD, English), with significant contributions from Ms. Malik, Dr. Sarika, Mr. Subhash, Ms. Rachna, and Ms. Nidhi, ensuring its seamless execution.

Exclusively organized for M.A. English students, the lecture aimed at fostering entrepreneurial skills and encouraging job creation. The interactive session saw an enthusiastic response, with students engaging in discussions and having their queries addressed by the speaker. A total of 57 students benefitted from the session, making it a highly enriching and impactful experience.
