

Press Release

A “7-day NSS Special camp” on theme “Youth for my Bharat and Digital Literacy” was organized by NSS unit-II Aggarwal College Ballabgarh wing-II under the able guidance of Sh. Devender Kumar Gupta, President, Governing Body, Aggarwal College Ballabgarh , Sh. Dinesh Kumar Gupta, Secretary, Governing Body, Aggarwal College Ballabgarh and Dr. Sanjeev Kumar Gupta, Acting Principal, Aggarwal College Ballabgarh . This camp aimed to empower youth and promote social awareness among volunteers.

The camp featured expert sessions on health and wellness, Drug abuse on Day -2 (20/02/25) entrepreneurship and cyber crime on Day-3 (21/02/25) .Students participated in poster-making competitions, fashion fiesta and Nukkad- Nataks on social themes.

The fourth day saw a rally with the motto of spread awareness about social issues among localize .The rally flagged off by Dr. KL Kaushik Sir, Dr. Ram Chandar Sir and Dr. Priyanka Sehrawat , PO ,NSS Unit-II.

The sixth day of the 7-Day Special NSS Camp was marked by a cleanliness drive and maintenance of the herbal garden. The NSS volunteers actively participated in the cleanliness drive, covering the college premises and surrounding areas. They collected trash, cleaned the classrooms, and ensured that the campus was spotless. The volunteers also tended to the herbal garden, ensuring that it was well-maintained and thriving. They watered the plants, removed weeds, and added organic fertilizers to promote healthy growth.

The activities of the day helped instill a sense of responsibility and environmental awareness among the volunteers.

The NSS camp has empowered youth to become agents of social change, promoting awareness on various social issues and encouraging students to take action and Dr. Priyanka Sehrawat, PO, NSS Unit-II smoothly conducting the camp in her supervision and motivated volunteers to participate in various activities involved in camp with full enthusiasm and energy.